

Inaugural Class of IAHSI – 2024

Eustache Muteba Ayumba

Eustache Muteba A., Msc in Computer sciences, is a Researcher Lecturer and Corresponding Member of the International Medical Informatics Association in DR Congo. He taught Medical Informatics in Faculty of Human Medicine of Private Universities in DR Congo. He is an Initiator and Chair of Virtual Community of Healthcare Facilities (VCHF) an e-health platform that aims to give healthcare professionals in remote areas access to critical health information, services and expertise in the domain such as tropical diseases (malaria) and in medical imaging.