

Class of IAHSI – 2020

Heather Grain

Heather has international expertise in the development, implementation, management and governance of digital health systems and data including terminologies and classifications and in design and delivery of research and education in tertiary and vocational education environments.

She has undertaken leadership roles in HL7 International and SNOMED International, as well as being convener of ISO TC215 Health Informatics Semantic Content working group for many years.