

Inaugural Class of IAHSI – 2017

Francesco Pincioli

Francesco Pincioli is Retired Full Professor Bioengineering and eHealth and Retired Head of the eHealthLab of the Politecnico di Milano. Also he is Former Honorary Visiting Professor at City University London, UK, and Former Senior Associate to the Engineering in Health and Wellbeing Research Group at the National Research Council of Italy. Moreover he is Former Deputy Editor of the Computers in Biology and Medicine journal. He headed a long lasting cooperation at the Cilea Interuniversity Consortium for Information and Communication Technologies. He headed the Visible Human Dataset Milano Mirror Site, built up as a cooperation between Politecnico di Milano and the US National Library of Medicine. In his early years he spent two NATO/OTAN Fellowships at the Biomedical Engineering Center at the Harvard-MIT Division of Health Sciences and Technologies. In 1977 he was among the founders of AIMM, the oldest Association for Medical Informatics in Italy.

One of his Lectio Magistralis can be accessed at https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=q4HH_Rq_lbM
Hiss ORCID is 0000-0002-4032-2501