

Inaugural Class of IAHSI – 2017

Johanna Westbrook

Johanna Westbrook, is Professor and Director, Centre for Health Systems and Safety Research, Australian Institute of Health Innovation, Macquarie University. Her expertise is in patient safety and evaluation of the effects of health information and communication technology. Johanna is Fellow of the Australasian College of Health Informatics, an International Fellow of the American College of Medical Informatics and was named Australian ICT professional of the year in 2014. Her publications can be found here