

Class of IAHSI – 2019

Nicolette de Keizer

Nicolette F de Keizer, PhD is Professor of Medical Informatics, specializing in evaluating healthcare and healthcare information systems, at the Amsterdam University Medical Center, the Netherlands. She is head of the department of medical informatics and managing director of the Dutch quality registry National Intensive Care Evaluation (NICE). She is past chair and active member of the IMIA working group on Health technology assessment and quality. A more extended bio can be found here.